PROGRAMS

Working on 24" to 60", 4 and 8 harness looms in a well-equipped facility, create items of lasting beauty.

Looms Equipment and supplies provided

Experience the Life of the Weaver: 3 day intensive will give insight into the many facets of weaving , three days of shuttle throwing madness, learn the steps of dressing the loom then continue to weave a Lap throw, overshot table runner and another project (scarf , shawl, rag rug or bound weave sampler) of your choosing time providing. Whether you continue on to become an emerging weaver or just want the experience to enhance creative spirit you will always have your creations to bring you fulfillment.

Tuition: $300 per person plus material cost $40-$70 depending on chosen materials.

Path of the Apprentice: (Available only to those who have completed the 3 day intensive "Experience the life of the Weaver"). Up to 40 hours of creative production weaving to be completed over a 2 month span. Times are flexible during Academy open hours. Working with me on my process exploring different weave structures and production techniques. You will also complete projects of lasting beauty that you may keep. As Weaving has many facets, each having a considerable learning curve this is designed to help you find your direction.

Tuition: $200 per person plus material cost $40 plus depending on number of pieces woven for personal use.

Dormant no more: Awaken the sleeping looms - 4+ hour lecture demonstration on the warping process for those who have allowed their looms to rest too long, designed to rekindle your sleeping spirit and reconnect with your loom. Tips and hints on warp design and the nature of the yarn, things to avoid and things to try. As I approach my 40th year of weaving experience I feel confident that I can answer many questions you may have.

Tuition: $60 per person.

Weaving Warrior: I have what it takes - 5 day intensive, for the strong of heart. Loom dressing and completion of as many projects as you can in 5 days. Working on already dressed looms make useful items in many different weave structures. Explore warp design and weft designing as you go. Program designed to promote production weaving and at loom attention span. Immediate gratification guaranteed. Not recommended as a beginning program, but if you want the challenge I will only encourage you, it's how I learned.

Tuition: $500 per person plus material cost $40 plus depending on size and number of pieces woven.

The Weaving Dream: Have you ever wondered what it would be like to create cloth? After I wove my first piece I felt that I could do anything. We are offering a dreamlike experience, an overnight in the Weavers Casita and the next day weave a shawl or throw on a loom ready for your fiber expression. A piece that you can use with pride, and a memory that will last a lifetime. This is only available for Wed evening Thursday weave day. This is designed for those who want a unique and rewarding experience.

Cost of experience: $100 per weaver plus $100 casita rental (Casita has 1 queen bed and a queen futon), you are welcome to have the weaving Dream without the casita accommodations.

Fiber Play: 2nd and 4th Saturday Mornings 9-12: Join with mountain fiberholics to Knit, Spin, crochet, weave and share knowledge and inspirations. A time to bring out unfinished projects or start new ones. Meet new friends and reconnect with old ones, we can learn so much from this type of sharing and leave inspired. No cost but donations are appreciated
